

I have xm satellite radio. As a truck driver it is most important to be able to get instant weather and traffic. The satellite radio is a great asset to a truck driver and all travellers. Commuters and or vacationers can get clear radio information from the satellite radio. Please leave the satellite radio system alone, we need to be able to have clear signals as an added safety measure.